v.

PHYLLIS MARIE CROWDER-KESTER*RespondentORDER

Before the panel of Randolph, C.J., Beam and Chamberlin, JJ., is Petitioner's Petition for Permission to Interlocutory Appeal to the Mississippi Supreme Court. Petitioner seeks review of the Lafayette County Chancery Court's order entered on November 19, 2020. "Appeal from [an interlocutory] order may be sought by filing a petition for permission to appeal with the clerk of the Supreme Court within 21 days after the entry of such order in the trial court with proof of service on the trial judge and all other parties to the action in trial court." M.R.A.P. 5(a). Petitioner did not file the instant petition until December 22, 2020, over thirty days after the chancery court's order was entered. After due consideration, the panel finds the petition should be dismissed as untimely filed.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Petitioner's Petition for Permission to Interlocutory Appeal to the Mississippi Supreme Court is hereby dismissed as untimely filed.

SO ORDERED.
