Vs

CAUSE NO. CV2016-422(W)

Phyllis Crowder-Kester

2021 JUL -9 P 4: 43

CHANCERY CLERK

BY DC PA

Petition for Citation of Contempt and Modification of prior order

COMES NOW your Plaintiff, Matthew Reardon, and files this files his petition for citation of contempt, and would show unto the Court the following just reasons to grant his petition and further modify the prior order of this court:

- 1) On March 23, 2021, This Court entered an Agreed Order due to both parties' interest in amicable resolution in the best interest of the minor child. Said order outlined obligations in order for mutual consideration to be considered
- 2) That on the above day, the entered order was entered improperly, and although plaintiff made all parties aware, no new order was entered. As such the lack of agreeance to terms on a same page by way of signature makes such order null and void
- 3) The Defendant in this cause has continued to demonstrate the same particular courses of action in not only cutting off all communication and visitation between the plaintiff and his minor child, but has in fact filed criminal charges against plaintiff in Justice Court for Trespassing, Family Disturbance, and Making Harassing and Threatening Phone Calls SOLEY for plaintiff pulling up to get his child on 6/19/21, Fathers Day Weekend. Time will once again show that Defendant files yet another false and frivolous charge
- 4) That Defendant first went in contempt of the afformentioned order when she failed to email Bela J Chain III within 5 days of the entry of the order. In fact Defendant never sent an email expressing intent until 4/30/2021, approximately 1 month late.

5) That Plaintiff as a result has suffered additional damages resulting from mental anguish and as such Plaintiff wishes to dissolve the prior order and pursue defendant for intentional damages she has continued to inflict upon Plaintiff by way of using the minor child to "Influence" currently ongoing legal proceedings.

AS SUCH PLAINTIFF RESPECTFULLY REQUESTS AN EMERGENCY HEARING BEFORE THIS COURT AS IT IS IN THE BEST INTEREST OF THE MINOR CHILD

WHEREFORE PREMISES CONSIDERED,

Plaintiff Matthew Reardon moves this honorable court to find for the plaintiff and hold the defendant in willful contempt, both civil and criminal, and apply a fitting punishment that shall help serve as a future reminder to defendant in order to help deter future violations.

Respondent has exhausted over 20 hours to research and legal filings in having to defend against such monstrous accusations, so respondent further asks for this court to award respondent a monetary amount to recompensate for all time lost over the past year, and greater. As such, Plaintiff seeks monetary awards of $15,000 to help recompensate for his time and anguish.

Respondent prays for such other relief either special or general to which he may be entitled under the circumstances.
