STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

OFFICE OF THE CLERK
SUPREME COURT
COURT OF APPEALS

Appellee

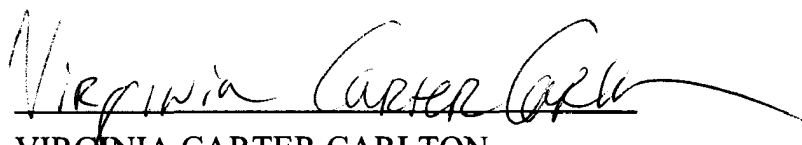

ORDER

This matter comes before the panel of Carlton, P.J., Westbrook and Smith, JJ., on Matthew Oliver Reardon's pro se "motion for time extension." On June 7, 2022, this Court handed down its opinion affirming the Lafayette County Circuit Court's judgment. On June 21, 2022, Reardon filed a timely motion for rehearing. M.R.A.P. 40(a). That same day, Reardon also filed his current motion. Within it, he requests a ten-day extension of time "to modify and send a cleaner copy of his" rehearing motion. We interpret this to mean that Reardon wants to withdraw his June 21 rehearing motion. Both requests are well taken.

THEREFORE, the appellant's pro se motion for time is granted. His motion for rehearing is due no later than ten days from the entry of this order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the appellant's pro se June 21, 2022 motion for rehearing shall be struck and removed from the docket.

SO ORDERED, this the 7th day of July, 2022.

VIRGINIA CARTER CARLTON,
PRESIDING JUDGE
